

The Wedding March.

STRAUSS—BAER.

On Wednesday evening, July 23rd, at the residence of M. A. Rosenfeld, 241 Whitehall street at 6:30 o'clock, Mr. A. A. Strauss, of Maysville, South Carolina, and Miss Blanche Baer, of this city, were united in holy wedlock, according to Ismeltfish rites by the Rev. Dr. Jacobson, of this city.

After the ceremony was performed and congratulations cordially tendered, numerous telegrams bearing good wishes and congratulations were received and read from friends north, south, east and west. A large number of relatives and friends who were present, were then invited to an elegant bridal banquet, one to delight the most highly educated palate. The company gathered together were congenial, and the occasion one to which the old quotation, "a feast of reason and a flow of soul" was newly appropriate. The bride, an exceedingly pleasant and intelligent young lady, is a sister of Mrs. Rosenfeld. Mr. Strauss, is a prominent merchant and one highly esteemed in Maysville. The happy couple will leave for Maysville, their future home, to-day.

THE CONSTITUTION extends the wish that soft summer skies may ever shine o'er, and love's perfect trust surround them.

SANDERS—RAMSEY.

On the evening of the 20th, at 8 o'clock, Miss Alice V. Ramsey, daughter of Rev. W. S. Ramsey, and Mr. James B. Sanders, of Dublin, were married, the father of the bride performing the ceremony. Quite a number of relatives and friends were present. The bridal tour will be to the resorts of north Georgia.

O'HARA—REVILL.

GREENVILLE, JULY 24.—Miss Nellie May Revill, eldest daughter of Hon. W. T. Revill, editor of the Vindicator, and Mr. A. B. O'Hara, a prosperous merchant of Woodbury, in this county, were married at the residence of the bride's father yesterday afternoon. Rev. W. P. Rivers officiating. Miss Nellie was graduated at the Methodist female college at LaGrange last year, her graduating poem having been published in THE CONSTITUTION.