

SAMUEL STROOCK

Official of Paint and Varnish Company Served in War

Samuel Stroock, vice president of Stroock & Wittenberg, 60 East Forty-second Street, importers of materials for the manufacture of paints and varnishes, died yesterday at his home, 21 East Eighty-seventh Street, after a short illness. He was 41 years old.

Born in New York, Mr. Stroock served in the World War with the Twenty-seventh Division. He was a member of the Downtown Club and the Hollywood Country Club, Deal, N. J.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Dorothy Frank Stroock; a son, Thomas, and a daughter, Sandra.